Energi Mine

Stand: 97

Do you get the feeling that energy procurement is stuck in the last century? Yes, we do too. Whilst other industries have drastically changed, the energy industry has been left behind. The same time-consuming, manual processes that were in place 20 years ago are still in place today, with a clear lack of innovation in the sector. This lack of innovation was a real sense of frustration for us, so rather than continue to complain about it, we decided to fix the problem. With a background in both global energy markets and some of the world's

Ivanti

When LANDESK and HEAT Software combined in January of 2017, we knew we needed a new company name. For nearly 30 years, LANDESK and HEAT offered user-centered IT solutions designed to increase user productivity while reducing IT security risk. LANDESK was the only vendor recognized by Gartner in the four areas of client management, endpoint protection, IT service and support, and enterprise mobility management. Over the years both companies changed. LANDESK acquired companies like Wavelink, Shavlik, Xtraction Solutions, and, most recently, AppSense. HEAT was created by combining FrontRange and Lumension. That's a lot of brand names. And in order to gather all these brands under one roof, we needed a new identity—and Ivanti was born. And since then, Concorde and RES have joined the Ivanti family.
